The ATA Carnet is an international customs document that has been the choice of U.S. exporters for temporary foreign importation for over 40 years. Also known as the "Merchandise Passport," this document offers the most in terms of flexibility, cost savings and ease of use.

Roanoke Trade has been a leader in Carnet expertise for more than a quarter century and has worked to educate exporters in the use of the ATA Carnet for the past decade. Our Carnet workshop is certified by the NCBFAA Educational Institute for continuing education credit and is designed with freight forwarders and customs brokers in mind and lets you learn what the experts know about the ATA Carnet.

This discussion will offer an overview of the ATA Carnet and will include:

How Carnets benefit your bottom line

- Learn practical ways to determine the best option for a temporary foreign import.
- Know the "Carnet Basics"— simple rules that will make you a pro.
- Learn how a Carnet works.
- Understand the basics when it comes to bonds and security.

How to make customs clearance a breeze

- Learn why Carnets will get your goods through customs faster than other forms of temporary importation.
- Learn what customs looks for and how to avoid some simple mistakes.
- Understand why foreign customs often prefers Carnets over other methods of temporary importation.

Advantages over other forms of temporary importation

- Learn the difference between Carnets, Temporary Importation under Bond (TIB) and Duty Drawback.
- Discover why Carnets are easier to obtain than TIBs.
- Understand why customs claims on TIBs differ from claims on Carnets AND why a Carnet can help avoid a large claim.
- Find out how you can easily apply for a Carnet online.

About your presenter: Mavis Walpole began working for Roanoke Trade in 1990 in Baltimore where she successfully developed a Carnet program for the region and handled underwriting for Carnet bonds, as well as claims management support. Mavis has brought her extensive Carnet knowledge to the trade community for over 15 years and has developed educational workshops for U.S. Customs, transportation professionals and exporters alike. In 2003, she began her current role as Carnet Business Development Manager and focuses on providing customized educational support to exporters and organizations involved in world trade. Educated in the United Kingdom, she moved to Canada where she worked as an operations manager for 11 years. Following her move to the United States, she worked for the Royal Insurance Company prior to joining Roanoke Trade. Mavis is a licensed insurance agent/broker in the state of Maryland.
